Kearsley Community Schools’
Points of Pride

Facts
• In fall 2018, the community supported a sinking fund millage that provides more than $800,000 per year for the next 10 years for maintenance and improvement of buildings.

• The Kearsley High School student newspaper, The Eclipse, earned five awards from the School Newspapers Online Network (SNO), including Best of SNO.

• Forty Armstrong Middle School (AMS) students qualified for the Wall of Fame. These students have received all As and Bs on their semester report cards all three years at AMS.

• More students than ever from AMS, Fiedler and Dowdall participated in the Blueberry Ambassadors program this year. Adviser Courtney Emerick was awarded the Inspirational Teacher of the Year Award.

• The AMS robotics teams, the Scrap Rats and Clockworks, honored military veterans when it hosted the well-attended Kearsley Qualifier competition. The Clockworks received the Rockwell Collins Innovate Award and qualified for state competition at Kettering.

• Several Future Problem Solvers who competed successfully at the Michigan FPS State Bowl this spring will compete nationally in June. They are: Jolie Timm, Connor Earegood, Autumn Sears, Jenna Roush and Delanie Schreiber from KHS and Brianna Sierra from AMS.

• Students in Fiedler’s Room 103 were one of the top 10 fundraisers in the county when they raised $2,648.84 for Dimes for Diapers.

• Science staff at Dowdall Elementary continued its venture with the George Lucas Foundation to deliver third grade science curriculum tied to the Next Generation Science Standards.

• Members of the Weston staff showcased their instructional practices when hosting teachers from Frankenmuth, Goodrich and Genesee, who visited to observe curriculum practices.

• The Pumpkin Patch, Kearsley’s premier childcare program, maintained its four-star rating by Michigan’s Department of Education’s Great Start to Quality office. Ratings are based on the number of state standards met.

Kearsley High School was one of only two schools in Genesee County earning an “A” grade by the Mackinac Center 2018 CAP Report Card Ranking. A school receiving an “A” grade far exceeds student achievement levels expected based on district demographics.

Our District
• KHS is fully accredited by AdvancED. AdvancED conducts onsite external reviews of schools and districts to ensure all learners realize their full potential.

• A perfect audit of district finances was once again recorded by a third party accounting firm.

• The Regional Alliance for Healthy Schools (RAHS) completed its second year at KHS. Nearly 1,400 visits to the clinic were recorded for students seeking a medical provider, social worker or registered dietitian.

• The Positivity Project played a big role in this year’s curriculum. The Project empowers youth to build positive relationships by seeing the character strengths in themselves and others.

• Students, staff and community members raised funds for Kearsley Christmas Charity, which assisted 161 families.
